It is January and winter has arrived. The coastal winds are carrying the leaves of restlessness. The need to spend quiet time in a natural environment is evident in our daily life. The desire to pack a bag and hide out is overwhelming. We, at The Hotels at Fager's Island, totally understand these needs and know how to react to our guests' expectations. We know how to make a guest comfortable and yet be invisible but ready to serve. We understand the need for privacy. That is why we invite you and welcome the opportunity to have you visit during this very special time of year.

Winter is one of the most beautiful, spiritual and dramatic times of the year at the beach. You will be in total communion with all of the natural inhabitants of our coastal community. Nature is at its best!

The reason many of our repeat clientele enjoy The Lighthouse Club and The Edge is because of the quiet, the fact it is removed from the busy, noisy atmosphere of a resort setting. In the Winter, we feel we have the entire Island to ourselves to enjoy day and night. We have walks on the beach in private. We have quiet romantic lunches and secluded dinners with hushed conversations. We have a time to refresh and renew.

Be as active as you please. With all the coastal villages surrounding Ocean City, there are lists of activities and events in which to participate. Borrow a movie or take a walk. Hike Assateague Island. Discover the historic sites on Delmarva. Bird watch or take in an antique auction or gift show. Variety is everywhere.

Off- season culinary offerings are exceptional. Half price Prime Rib & Rock Fish every Monday and Tuesday at Fager's Island Restaurant, Wine Dinners, Ethnic dinners every night of the week and gourmet luncheon specials you won't find any other time of the year are all offerings from many of Ocean City's finest restaurants.

At our hotels, we provide you with listings of all recommended restaurants, their specials and their hours. We provide you with a list of Winter Activities and locations. And, we provide you with another list of Rainy Day suggestions for those days that outdoor activity is not recommended. Attached are some of the January and February activities and events going on just at Fager's Island.

We invite you to visit this Winter for a truly quiet escape relaxing body and mind and taking time to refresh the spirit.

Thank you for your continued interest in Fager's Island and for your years of patronage and friendship.
